Commonly Misunderstood Policy Violations

As residential students it is imperative to your personal development and the wellbeing of the community that the rules and regulations are followed. However, in order the rules one must know them. Listed are some of the common misunderstood violations.

RL01. Possession of empty alcohol containers by residents under 21 years of age

RL02. Possession of large quantities of alcoholic beverages (no more than twelve 12 oz. beers OR 1500 ml of wine OR 750 ml of distilled liquor)
   Alcoholic beverages can travel throughout the campus (from one residence hall room to another) as long as all participants are at least 21 years of age and the amount of alcohol per person does not exceed the reasonable amount.

RL05. Possession or use of prohibited items

RL09. Noise Policy violation
   (One example of this: A student is playing loud music in their room at 2am.)

RL11. Failure to adhere to a signed residential living agreement
   (One example of this: Students violate the standards that were set by themselves and their roommate.)

RL15. Not adhering to the Health and Safety Inspections policy or failure to correct violations

RL19. Possession of highly flammable objects or open flames

RL20. Failure to evacuate immediately upon the sound of a fire alarm or reentering prior to being authorized

RL21. Cooking Policy violation
   (One example of this: Leaving food unattended while cooking.)

RL26. Key/Access Card Policy violation

RL32. In the presence of alcohol and/or other drugs
   (One example of this: An underage student is in the presence of age students while drinking.)