Resident Assistant Position Description

POSITION OVERVIEW:
A Resident Assistant (RA) is an academic-year student employee within Housing and Residence Life (HRL) that helps create and support a community of students within the residence halls at George Mason University. RAs focus their time and energy on the residents of their community, ensuring that students have a healthy, safe, and supportive environment in which to learn and develop. RAs are expected to be visible in their communities and serve as available resources within their assigned residence hall. Resident Assistants will engage with residential students through peer-to-peer communication, implementation of residential curriculum initiatives, hosting interactive programs, etc. All Resident Assistants are supervised by a Community Director or Graduate Community Director.

POSITION RESPONSIBILITIES & EXPECTATIONS:
All essential duties and responsibilities of the Resident Assistant position reflect one or more of University Life’s Student Employee Experience goals: Communication, Self-Awareness, Work Ethic, Problem-Solving, and Working with Others.

Communication
- Serve as a resource for residents and connect them to academic, cultural, social, and support services on campus
- Create flyers, bulletin boards, and visual displays for the assigned area(s)
- Establish and maintain relationships with individual residents in first-year student communities; engage with students in upperclass residence halls through community-wide initiatives (newsletters, social events, passive programming, etc.)

Self-Awareness
- Assist the supervisor with ongoing resident engagement and support related to their academic, social, and intrapersonal well-being
- Respond to student concerns and crisis situations when necessary; engage with HRL and campus resources to provide immediate and long-term support services

Work Ethic
- Participate in all aspects of fall and spring semester HRL Student Staff Training as well as ongoing professional development throughout the academic year
- Complete all administrative tasks (i.e. occupancy verification reports, curriculum reports, purchasing requests, etc.) in established deadlines
- Attend weekly HRL student staff meetings on Wednesdays at 7:30pm-9:30pm

Problem-Solving
- Provide mediation of roommate and peer-to-peer conflicts in the community
- Participate in assigned residence hall’s Community Hours rotation, providing in-person assistance to resident questions and concerns
Working with Others
• Assist with the implementation and execution of the Residential Curriculum in assigned community
• Coordinate and facilitate floor and building-wide programs to support resident interaction and develop community
• Assist with large scale initiatives and programs sponsored by Housing and Residence Life, University Life, and other campus partners including but not limited to Admissions preview events, Student Involvement collaborations, and Preamble

POSITION REQUIREMENTS:
To hold a Resident Assistant position, a student must fulfill the following criteria:
● RAs must be enrolled as a full-time undergraduate student. Therefore, an undergraduate RA should be enrolled in a minimum of 12 credit hours and no more than 18 credit hours per semester. RAs seeking more credits than the maximum must seek prior approval from their immediate supervisor
● At a minimum, RAs are required to maintain a 2.5 cumulative GPA and a 2.5 semester GPA throughout employment
● RAs must have reached sophomore standing by the start of employment
● All RAs must successfully complete a background check before beginning their position
● All Housing and Residence Life student staff are required to uphold and execute all Housing and Residence Life policies

To hold a Resident Assistant position, a student must fulfill the following co-curricular criteria:
Ability to commit to the position for a full academic year.
● Ability to commit to the position for a full academic year
● RAs must remain in good standing with the University and with Housing and Residence Life
● RAs must be eligible to live on the respective campus for which they are hired
● Failure to meet any of these requirements may result in termination or rescinding of employment

COMPENSATION
All Resident Assistants will be provided a single bedroom within their assigned residence hall. RAs will also receive a prorated meal plan ($2,000 provided toward Liberty 14 Meal Plan, per year; student will be responsible for covering the difference). Please note that this is the minimum meal-plan required for all RA staff, and more comprehensive meal plan packages can be purchased. RAs will also receive a monetary stipend of $1,600 for the academic year, distributed twice per month.

PERIOD OF APPOINTMENT: The Resident Assistant position is a single academic-year appointment, beginning in August 2019 and concluding in May 2020. For a Resident Assistant to continue as Housing and Residence Life Summer Staff for the 2020 interim and summer sessions, the period of employment ends when the Summer Staff position begins.
