WELCOME TO THE COMMUNITY

Our Mission

Housing and Residence Life is committed to providing a safe and well-maintained student centered environment that is innovative and inclusive of a global community. We are dedicated to creating a home that enriches the experiences of our students, staff and faculty.

Over 6,100 students call the residence halls home. On-campus living offers many benefits including special programs and activities and a convenient location. We believe that living on campus will be the perfect complement to your academic experience at Mason.

Housing and Residence Life believes that the out of classroom learning experience is an important part of your academic and personal development. We provide and support a wide array of educational and social programs that focus on providing invaluable opportunities to you throughout the academic year. We are committed to creating an environment that encourages you to explore interpersonal relationships without bias while being a part of an evolving campus community. We invite all members to become active participants in their living and learning experience at Mason.

Roommate Bill of Rights

Being a roommate and having a roommate can be one of the most important experiences for a residential student. How residents approach this new experience, what they put into it, what they expect from it, and what they learn from it are equally important steps in determining the success of any roommate relationship.

The “Roommate Bill of Responsibilities and Rights,” reveals what room/apartment/suite-mates can reasonably expect from one another. Residence Life staff is available to assist, as requested.

- YOU HAVE THE RIGHT to a safe and secure residence hall living environment;
- YOU HAVE THE RIGHT to a reasonably peaceful and quiet space in which you can sleep and study.
- YOU HAVE THE RIGHT to privacy and to the proportionate use of your room, both in terms of space and time, and the right to be free of unwanted guests in your room;
- YOU HAVE THE RIGHT to confront another person's behavior when it infringes on your rights;
- YOU HAVE THE RIGHT to the assistance of your Resident Advisor, Resident Director, Assistant Director, or other HOUSING AND RESIDENCE LIFE staff members when you need help with a problem;
- YOU HAVE THE RIGHT to know what is appropriate and inappropriate behavior in your living environment;

Housing and Residence Life Resources

Housing and Residence Life is committed to ongoing support of our residents and the University mission. Within HRL there are multiple resources in place to address questions and concerns. Please utilize the Residence Life staff as a resource. Additionally, contact HRL at housing@gmu.edu or 703-993-2720.

Resident Student Association (RSA)

RSA is an advocate for student needs, and an avenue to improve the experience in residence and dining halls. They address problems, concerns and questions you might have, and they represent the collective interests of on-campus resident students. They also provide social and educational events by organizing building and neighborhood activities.

RSA is open to all residents on campus, and welcome everyone who wants to get involved and have an impact on life at Mason.

Resident Assistants (RAs)

These student staff members live in the halls and focus their time and energy on the residents of their community. They serve as the main contact for students living on campus and provide residents with a variety of educational and social engagement opportunities throughout the academic year.

Community Assistants (CAs)

These student staff members live in the halls and focus their time and energy on providing support and resources to residential students and their guests. Community Assistants are responsible for staffing the HRL desks, providing evening, weekend, and holiday “on-call” assistance in the residential areas, and conducting residence hall health & safety inspections and processes.

Office Assistants (OAs)

These student staff members provide support and resources to residential students and their guests at HRL desks during evening, weekend, and holiday hours.

Assistant Community Directors (ACDs)

These student staff members live in the halls and provide support, resources, and guidance to residential students and HRL student staff members serving in RA, CA, and OA roles. Assistant Community Directors have a minimum of one full academic year experience as an RA or CA and works with the Community Director to manage the daily operations of their assigned residential area(s).

Community Directors (CDs)

These full-time professional staff members live on campus and are responsible for the day-to-day operations of their assigned residential area(s). Community Directors provide direct supervision to the RAs, CAs, and ACD working in their respective area and interact with residential students through a variety of educational and social engagement opportunities. Community Directors serve in a 24/7 “on-call” rotation to assist residential students with concerns and emergencies that arise during evenings, weekends, and holidays.

RESIDENCE HALL STANDARDS

Housing and Residence Life is committed to fostering the best environment possible for the pursuit of academic goals, personal growth, and community development within the residence halls. As a public institution of higher education, Mason has as its primary mission the development of students into productive citizens and critical thinkers who contribute to the well-being of society. It is the purpose of the University's conduct system to promote a climate that facilitates behaviors supportive of learning and protects the university community from conduct that is destructive to the learning environment.

The Residence Life Standards are set forth to provide you notice of prohibited conduct in the residence halls as described in the Resident Student Handbook. All Mason residents are responsible for abiding by the University Code of Conduct, as well as the following Residence Life Standards. The following acts when conducted by you or your guest(s) will constitute a violation.

Abandoned Property

HRL assumes no liability for damaged or loss of any abandoned property. Any personal property not removed after a check-out; published hall closing deadline; housing suspension, relocation, or room change deadline; termination of the housing contract, withdrawal, or separation from the university is considered abandoned. A storage and room-cleaning charge will be assessed against any student who fails to remove their items or personal property, in accordance with housing damage billing. Personal property left in hallways, stairwells, lounges and other common areas will be considered abandoned property. Abandoned property is subject to disposal or recycling as deemed appropriate at the student's expense.

Alcohol

In accordance with state law, Housing and Residence Life prohibits the illegal or otherwise irresponsible use of alcohol.

- Of-Age Resident:
 - This prohibition includes providing alcohol to a student under the legal drinking age of 21. Residents of legal drinking age found intentionally or inadvertently providing alcohol to underage students may be removed from the residence halls. Students of legal drinking age are responsible for accurately verifying that those in their presence are also of legal drinking age.
 - If you are an of-age student, you or your guest's possession, use, or consumption of alcohol shall not infringe upon the privacy, peace, or enjoyment of other students or guests in the residence hall.
- Under age residents:
 - If you choose to engage in the use of alcohol while under the age of 21, you will be held accountable for possession, use, or impairment as well as the consequences of any behavior that results from this choice. This includes if you choose to drink off campus and return to campus as well if you engage in behaviors that are disruptive to the community.

Designated Dry Areas (Alcohol Free)

Alcohol possession or consumption is prohibited in any room or suite where all residents assigned to the space by Housing are under the age of 21. This includes the consumption of alcohol by guests over the age of 21.

No open containers of alcoholic beverages are permitted outside of residential rooms, suites, apartments, and townhouses regardless of your age. Alcohol is not to be consumed in residential common areas and exterior areas including but not limited to porches, balconies, landings, corridors, study lounges, parking lots, or courtyards. If you are found with an open container you will be asked to dispose of the alcohol under the supervision of HRL staff and may face disciplinary actions.

Of Age & Underage Roommates

In the instance in which one resident is 21 years of age or older and one is under the age of 21, the resident of age 21 may possess alcohol for individual reasonable consumption (according to the quantity limits detailed on the next page). At no time should residents of 21 years of age or older provide alcohol to underage residents/roommates. Under these circumstances, the resident 21 years of age may store alcohol for individual reasonable consumption in the shared refrigerator of the assigned space.

Containers & Paraphernalia

Binge drinking paraphernalia is also prohibited. This includes but is not limited to the presence of alcohol in and the consumption of alcohol from kegs, beer balls, beer bong, trashcans, gallon jugs, or alcoholic punch. General drinkware that is not bulk or binge drinking paraphernalia and can be purchased by anyone regardless of age is permitted.

- Under age Residents: While we encourage students to decorate their spaces, please note that if you are under the age of 21, you are not allowed to possess empty alcohol containers (including cans, bottles, boxes, etc.). This prohibition applies to items used for decorative purposes, hobbies, and projects.
- Of Age Residents: Collections of containers that contain or previously contained alcohol beyond the quantified amount are not permitted for of age residents.

Games

Drinking games, common source containers and/or containers designed for rapid consumption of alcohol including but not limited to punches, “beer pong” tables, beer bong, funnels, tubing, beer balls (commercially sold gallon kegs), gallon jugs, drinking games, etc.) are prohibited in or around the residential communities. Playing drinking games with water in the presence of alcohol is considered a policy violation. Kegs containing alcohol are prohibited in residence halls. Possession of excessive amounts of alcohol, and/or common source containers, regardless of age, may result in housing suspension.

Guests

Part of creating a home environment is allowing guests to visit in that environment. Along with this right comes the responsibility of ensuring that your guest is aware of and remains in compliance with the alcohol policy, including not consuming in dry areas regardless of age. If your guest is of legal drinking age but you are not, your guest cannot possess or consume alcohol in your living space unless your of age roommate is present.

If you are of legal drinking age, your guest who is of age may bring alcoholic beverages of the permitted amount to your living space while you are present.

In the presence

Since alcohol abuse poses a significant risk to all residents of the residence halls (drinkers as well as non-drinkers), community members must assume responsibility for the compliance and enforcement of the alcohol policy

Please know that if you are knowingly in a location containing alcohol, you may be considered to be in possession of or in the presence of alcohol.

When in the presence of a potential violation of policy and/or procedure, we expect our residents to do one or more of the following:

- a) Personally confront and stop the violation, except in cases of violence or threat of violence;
- b) Bring the violation to the awareness of a staff member, Security, and/or University Police;
- c) Leave the scene of the violation, if not assigned to the unit in which the violation is occurring.

Public Intoxication

Regardless of age, students walking through public spaces (including the Mason campus) while intoxicated (from alcohol or another drug) risk being charged with public intoxication and can receive a criminal summons and/or be transported to the County detoxification center. A person is “intoxicated” under Virginia law when s/he has drunk enough alcoholic beverages to observably affect their manner, disposition, speech, muscular movement, general appearance or behavior.

Quantity Limits

If you are of legal drinking age, you may possess and store in your assigned living space no more than ONE of the following:

- twelve 12 oz. beers
- 1500 ml bottle of wine or two 750 ml bottles of wine
- 750 ml bottle of distilled liquor

Containers of alcohol larger than the above quantities will be considered not in compliance with the alcohol policy. That includes, but not limited to, 1.75L bottles of liquor, 1.75L bottles of wine, and kegs, among other things.

You may only consume alcohol in living spaces assigned to residents 21 years of-age or older when those residents are present.

Collections of containers that contain or previously contained alcohol beyond the permitted amount designated above are not permitted. Empty bottles should be discarded in the trash room upon consumption.

Appliances and Equipment

Below is a list of items that are most commonly questioned as to whether they are permitted or prohibited from residence halls. Residents found in possession of prohibited items will be required to remove the item from the residence halls and will face disciplinary action. In addition, residents may be responsible for any cost related to the removal and/or storage of the item. Residents are responsible for all damages from permitted and/or prohibited items.

Bathrooms and Showers

As a member of the community, we ask that you help in maintaining a clean, sanitary and non-hazardous living environment. It is your responsibility as a member of our community to keep bathrooms, showers, and restrooms clean, sanitary and non-hazardous.

Bathroom and shower stalls are designed for individual use and are only to be used by one person at a time.

Bicycles

The university is not responsible for theft or damage to bicycles. If you choose to bring a bicycle to campus, you are responsible for securing and storing it properly. Bike racks are available outside most academic buildings and residence halls. Bikes may be stored in the provided bike racks and in your individual room in the residential areas. Bike placement must meet applicable regulations and not be stored in a manner that blocks entrances/exits, pathways, or safety equipment. Bikes stored anywhere else will be considered abandoned and will be removed.

Chalking Policy

The use of chalk to advertise or decorate is limited to students and recognized student groups at Mason. Students, or recognized student groups, who use chalk to advertise on sidewalks are responsible for removing the chalk advertising or decoration within 7 days after the event is concluded that is being advertised. Housing reserves the right to remove any chalk advertising or decoration and may bill the student and/or registered student organization for the cost of removal. Chalking is only permitted in areas where it may be washed away by rain (i.e., sidewalks). Chalking is not permitted on buildings.

Chronic Misbehavior

A resident establishes an unacceptable pattern of misconduct when the resident is involved in/or around multiple policy violations, even though individual offenses might be minor. A pattern of irresponsible conduct, may result in the behavior being addressed through our student conduct process as well as a discussion about that student's previous behaviors and whether or not the resident should remain in the residence halls.

Cleaning

As a member of the community, we ask that you help in maintaining a clean, sanitary and non-hazardous living environment. It is your responsibility as a member of our community to keep your assigned space and common areas (lounges, bathrooms, kitchenettes, etc.) clean, sanitary and non-hazardous. Personal property may not be stored for any period of time in common areas including lounges, balconies, and hallways.

Students are responsible for removing trash and recycling from their rooms in a timely manner. Students are required to clean all pots, pans, and dishes used and return them to their proper place. All sinks, showers, counters, and floors should be cleaned. Students who fail to practice good housekeeping could be responsible for associated charges. Fees and/or other sanctions will be assessed for excessive cleaning.

Communication

The university utilizes Mason e-mail systems for communicating relevant and important information to its residents. You are responsible for setting up and checking your official George Mason University e-mail account regularly and will be held accountable for all information communicated by Mason e-mail.

Compliance

Students in the residence halls are expected to comply with and respond truthfully to reasonable requests of any HRL or University officials when acting in the performance of their duties, including administrative instructions and deadlines. Examples of noncompliance include but are not limited to the following.

- Being verbally abusive or argumentative with an HRL staff member, Security, or University official.
- Failure to leave premises when asked by an HRL staff member, Security, or University official in the performance of their duties.
- Attempts to bribe university representatives.

- Giving false or misleading, partially truthful, information
- Interference or disruption to processes which include but are not limited to attempts to influence, intimidate, or threaten anyone

Cooking Safety

Cooking is not permitted in residence hall rooms with the exception of food that can be prepared in a microwave. Basic room convenience appliances are permitted in residence hall rooms. Basic convenience appliances include refrigerators, microwaves, hot-air poppers, sealed-unit coffee makers and sealed-unit water kettles. All appliances with the exclusion of basic convenience appliances must be stored and used in kitchen areas accessible to students.

Residents living in residence hall suites with full kitchens are provided with University kitchen appliances (refrigerator, stove, oven, and microwave). Students may bring additional appliances to their kitchen area as desired. Any kitchen appliances utilizing oil or grease or resulting in greasy residue should use appropriate disposal methods (cool and throw away, do not pour down drain). Please make sure you are paying attention and present the duration of cooking. You will be held responsible for damages resulting from negligent cooking practices.

The following cooking techniques are recommended by the Housing and Residence Life:

- Read and follow food product preparation instructions prior to beginning to cook. (e.g., microwave popcorn or microwave macaroni and cheese)
- Never leave oven, stove, or microwave un-attended while in-use.
- Clean appliances and cookware frequently to prevent the build-up of grease and grease by products.
- Turn on overhead exhaust fan prior to cooking to reduce the potential for smoke.
- Prepare food to designated safe temperatures prior to eating. See the following chart for type of food and appropriate temperatures. Visit www.foodsafety.gov for more information.

Disruptive Behavior

Disruptive Behavior is defined as behavior that infringes upon academic pursuits or is disruptive to orderly community living, including the privacy and privileges of residential community members.

While part of building community is engaging in social activities with fellow hall mates, actions such as throwing items in the hallways, bicycle riding, wrestling or bouncing balls inside the residence halls are prohibited. Sports/recreational equipment should not be utilized in the residence halls, as they can lead to injury, activation of sprinkler system or damage to person or property. Skateboarding is prohibited in/around the residence halls or in parking lots.

No athletic activity of any kind is allowed in the halls. This includes, but is not limited to, skating, kicking or tossing a Hacky Sack™ or Frisbee, playing basketball or football, wrestling or jumping rope, etc. There are places to participate in these activities around campus. All athletic equipment must be stored in residents' rooms.

Drugs/Prescription Medication Abuse/Illegal Substances

Since the use or possession of a controlled substance poses a significant threat to all residents of the residence halls, community members must assume responsibility for the compliance and enforcement of the University Drug Abuse policy. Therefore, any student in a location containing a controlled substance (and/or paraphernalia) may be considered in possession of the controlled substance (and/or paraphernalia).

No student shall use or possess an illegal drug as defined by the Drug Control Act of the Commonwealth of Virginia (http://www.dhp.virginia.gov/Pharmacy/pharmacy_laws_regs.htm).

Residents are responsible for the conduct of their guests and visitors while in the residence halls. Therefore, the host will be held responsible if a guest or visitor is found in the possession of, consuming, manufacturing, or distributing controlled substances and may be removed from the residence halls.

Misuse of over-the-counter drugs or prescriptions, and inhaling dangerous substances (i.e. huffing) is illegal as well as prohibited in the residence halls. Not using an over-the-counter drug or prescription as directed is prohibited. Providing over-the-counter drugs or prescription to another individual is also prohibited.

Any object or device (homemade or otherwise) that reasonably can be assumed for use as a consumption or concealing device for controlled substances are not permitted in the residence halls. This includes but is not limited to roach clips, bongs, pipes, blow tubes, bowls and/or any type of water pipe or any object filled with water through which smoke is drawn as well as needles, scales, and syringes (unless there is a documented medical need). While hookahs or other smoking devices are not illegal, a hookah found with drug residue will be considered drug paraphernalia.

For more information about the drug policy and potential sanctions associated with it please refer to the Student Code of Conduct and the University Drug Policy.

Fire Safety - Equipment

For the safety of all residents, the university regularly inspects all fire safety equipment in campus living spaces, including smoke detectors in accordance with the Virginia Statewide Fire Prevention Code. University policy and the Code of Virginia prohibit tampering with smoke detectors or any other fire safety equipment. Do not attempt to disconnect, reset, or repair a smoke detector.

Residents of the university townhouses have independent, battery operated smoke detectors. Although these devices are bi-annually inspected by university staff members, residents should be conducting weekly tests to ensure they are functioning correctly. Any concerns noted by a resident upon inspection of a device should be immediately reported through a phone call to their Neighborhood desk.

Fire Safety – General

Each resident is ultimately responsible for personal safety. A fire hazard is any situation in which there is a greater than normal risk of harm to people or property due to fire. Fire hazards can take the form of, but are not limited to: the obstruction of an exit in a residence hall compromising adequate exit (path of egress), overloading electrical systems, possessing materials that produce toxic fumes when heated, propping of trash room, corridor and/or stairwell doors, etc.

Tampering with any fire safety equipment including but not limited to fire extinguishers, smoke detectors, suppression system sprinkler heads, heat detectors, or fire doors is grounds for disciplinary action, including removal from housing areas and criminal prosecution. Residents are responsible for guests while in the residence halls; therefore, hosts will be held responsible for familiarizing guest(s) with fire safety policies and procedures.

Tampering, removing, or discharging fire suppression equipment, failure to correct upon notice a violation of the fire code, falsely activating fire alarm, or any other emergency equipment except when responding to a fire is a violation of the Code of Virginia and is prohibited. Misuse of such equipment is considered a Class 1 Misdemeanor that is punishable by law with one year in prison, a $2,500 fine, or both as defined by the Code of Virginia and in addition to University disciplinary action.

Arson is defined as maliciously burning anything, or aiding, counseling or procuring the setting of fire to anything. Arson is considered by the Code of Virginia a felony. This is a crime punishable by significant fines and/or significant jail time. The likely minimum sanctioning for arson under University disciplinary action is suspension.

All means of egress, including doorways, windows & stairs, are intended to provide a safe and adequate means by which occupants may exit a facility and emergency personnel may access a building during an emergency. Items in stairwells, blocking or restricting door opening or window opening or closure, restricting corridor width, or blocking emergency equipment are a violation. All means of egress must be free of obstructions.

Window coverings, room dividers, partitions, and bed privacy tents used in residence halls must be in compliance with Housing standards, the Virginia Statewide Fire Prevention Code and University Policies. All products used for these purposes must be in compliance with National Fire Prevention Association Standard 701 or noncombustible. Store-bought products that are in compliance with NFPA 701 are marked appropriately by the manufacturer. For more information please see the decorations policy.

While Housing tries to cover most living circumstances in this handbook, be advised that as a state property, all student housing is subject to inspection(s) from the Virginia State Fire Marshal's office, the Environmental Health and Safety Office and Housing and Residence Life. Residents must comply with all Virginia Statewide Fire Prevention Codes and University policies. Violations that don't require immediate confiscation must be corrected promptly and rooms are subject to re-inspection. Students who fail to correct violations may be subject to fines, confiscation of property, conduct procedures, housing suspension and/or criminal prosecution.

Alarms and Evacuation – Alarms and Reporting

When a fire alarm sounds, residents must immediately evacuate the building, report to their designated assembly point, attempt to report to a staff member, and follow the instructions of emergency personnel and staff. It is against the law to remain in a building during a fire alarm activation. Residents who do not evacuate in a timely manner or fail to adhere to instructions given by emergency personnel and Housing staff, will be subject to disciplinary action and criminal prosecution.

Alarms and Evacuation – Students with Disabilities

To aid in the safety of residents with disabilities, either permanent or temporary, residents should report special accommodation or support needs to their Resident Director (this may include residents with physical impairments and psychological conditions) and Disability Services. A list of rooms occupied by residents with disabilities is provided to the Environmental Health & Safety Office for the sole purpose of notifying University Police and Fire & Rescue personnel. Residents consent to this release of information through Disability Services during the intake process.

If an individual with a disability is unable to safely evacuate when a fire alarm is activated:

- If the student is in a room when the alarm sounds, the student may remain there. The resident should close the door and windows and dial 911 from a landline or (703) 993-2810 from a cell phone. Inform the dispatcher that a student with a disability is calling, that there is a fire alarm sounding in the building, give a name and room number, and request assistance in evacuating the building. The dispatcher will inform the responding fire department of the resident's location.
- If the student is in a common area bathroom when the resident hears the alarm sound, the resident should return to the room or to the nearest available room, and follow the steps outlined in the first bullet. In some cases, stairwells have been constructed to be safer alternatives, as well.
- If safe to do so, resident is to remain in self-determined location until help arrives.

Combustible Material and Fireworks

The possession and/or use of fireworks, explosives, pyrotechnic devices, flame-producing materials or other highly combustible materials (e.g. gasoline, lighter fluid) inside a residence hall, on residence hall property or at a residence hall-sponsored event or activity are prohibited unless otherwise approved by the State Fire Marshall's Office. This includes lighter fluid for refillable lighters. Residents found possessing or using fireworks in or around the residence halls may be immediately removed from the residence halls. The host will be held responsible if a guest is found using or possessing fireworks.

Health and Safety Inspections

For the health and safety of each resident, Housing staff members in collaboration with the Environmental Health & Safety Office will inspect rooms for safety hazards, damages, cleanliness and other policy violations, minimally twice an academic year. Periodic inspections by the State Fire Marshal Inspector may also be done. You are not required to be present for these inspections. Failure to immediately resolve or correct violations resulting from a Virginia

State Fire Marshal or Health and Safety Inspections will result in disciplinary action, confiscation, or fines,

Neighborhood Grills

Housing and Residence Life has installed permanent mounted park style grills for use of all residential students. Grills can be used on a first-come, first-serve basis and are not able to be reserved through the neighborhood desk. If you decide to use the grill, you are expected to behave responsibly. Charcoal cannot be stored in your residence hall room. You should only purchase the amount of charcoal you need for one use at a time. In order to appropriately use the grill within your neighborhood we ask that you follow the rules for use:

- Self-lighting charcoal not requiring lighter fluid is the only approved fuel source to be used with the grills but is not permitted to be stored in the residence halls.
- You must be present at grill until charcoal is appropriately disposed of

Gambling

Gambling is defined as engaging in any activity or game for profit whether or not money or goods are visibly being exchanged. Gambling is not permitted within the residential halls.

Guests

You are responsible for informing your visitors of the residence hall policies. Guests are required to adhere to all of University and HRL policies and as host you are responsible for your guests' behavior. A guest is defined as any person who is not assigned by HRL to live in the room, even if that person is a Mason student. No more than two guests per resident of that space present are allowed at any one time. You assume full responsibility for your guest while they are visiting whether you are present at the time of an incident or not. If you cannot come to an agreement with the other students in your living unit, the right of the student who does not want guests takes priority.

Non-Resident Guests

1. All guests must adhere to the guidelines set up in the Roommate(s) Contract.
2. All guests must be escorted at all times and carry a valid photo I.D.
3. Residence Life staff may ask guests to leave at any time, requests to which guests are required to comply.

Overnight Guests (resident and non-resident)

An overnight guest is defined as a guest who stays after 2:00 a.m. You are allowed to have overnight guests to your living space provided you acquire advance permission from your room/apartment/suite-mates.

Your guest's stay may not exceed three nights in a ten day period. If you need a guest to stay longer you must get approval from the Community Director of your community. You may not give your room key or access card to your guest. You are responsible for escorting your guest during their stay in the community. Cohabitation, loan, subletting, or rental of residence hall space are prohibited at Mason even if no money is has changed hands. This includes allowing guests to stay for an extended period of time in a room/apartment/suite regardless of whether or not the resident assigned to the space is present or the roommate agrees to the arrangement.

Guests Under the Age of 18

Resident students who host non-resident minors as visitors or overnight guests take on an extra responsibility. Minors require greater supervision and guidance. The following rules apply to minors and their hosts:

1. Guests who are 16 or 17 years old may remain overnight with a resident student host. Guests of this age must provide the Community Director with written permission from their parent/guardian for this stay over. The Community Director must approve the request prior to the visit and should be contacted a minimum of a week prior to the stay request.
2. Guests under the age of 16 may visit overnight only in rare circumstances. Parental/guardian permission must be provided. It is at the discretion of the Associate Director of Residential Communities whether appropriate special circumstances warrant approval or denial for the request.

Visitation at SMSC

SMSC students are permitted to have visitors Friday at 5pm through Monday at 7am. Visitors during the week will not be allowed on site.

Immunizations

All newly admitted students and re-admitted students must complete the Immunization Record Form and submit the form to the Immunization Office by the deadline listed at shs.gmu.edu. A late fee will be charged and a hold will be placed on the student's Patriot Web account if records or documentation are late or incomplete after the deadline. In order to live on campus, we require you to be in compliance with this policy prior to moving in. Students will not be permitted to stay in the residence hall without completing the Immunization Record Form.

Intimidation/Bullying

The Office of Housing and Residence Life will not tolerate a hostile environment created by conduct so severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive that it effectively bars the victim's access to educational opportunity or benefit. Residents living in the residence halls are expected to treat others with respect and dignity. Harassment, intimidation, and bullying in any form will not be tolerated

Use of social media platforms, cameras, camera phones, digital recording devices, and/or video equipment to record or distribute images of another person will be considered harassment and a violation if utilized without the specific consent of the persons(s) being photographed, recorded, and/or videoed.

Keys/Card Access

Residents will either be issued hard keys and/or have their Mason ID cards programmed to grant access to their assigned residential space. The keys issued upon move-in are property of Mason. Student Conduct Procedures

All students alleged to have violated University policies and/or procedures, including those of housing, are subject to student conduct proceedings. The model for the student conduct process is that of an administrative proceeding, rather than a criminal or civil trial. Hearing options include administrative hearings adjudicated by a staff member or a board made up of students.

To be found responsible for a violation, information must be presented to the Hearing Officer or board that establishes by a preponderance of the information (a “more likely than not” standard) that the respondent is responsible for the misconduct. Students may also refer an incident to the Office of Student Conduct by complaint an incident report via email at <https://studentconduct.gmu.edu/contact-us/incident-reporting-form/>.

The Code of Student Conduct including policies and procedures may be found at: <http://studentconduct.gmu.edu>

Complicity in Prohibited Acts

Complicity is defined as condoning, supporting, or encouraging any violation of the Code of Student Conduct. Students who anticipate or observe any violation of the Code of the Student Conduct, and by extension, Housing and Residence Life policies, are expected to remove themselves from association or participation in any such inappropriate behavior. Individuals who fail to do so may be subject to the student conduct process for alleged violations.

Students living in the residence halls and any event sponsors are accountable for the behavior of their guests and may be sanctioned under this provision as if they had committed the violations themselves. When in the presence of a potential violation of policy and/or procedure, residents are expected to do one or more of the following: a) personally confront and stop the violation, except in cases of violence or threat of violence; b) bring the violation to the awareness of a staff member, and/or University Police; c) leave the scene of the violation, if not assigned to the unit in which the violation is occurring.

Residential Services

Housing Selection Process

The Housing Selection Process is the procedure where current you may apply for an on-campus room for the next academic year.

Housing Selection: Housing Deposit, Applications, and Room Selection

- Please refer to your housing agreement for more information concerning housing deposits and agreement releases. The non-refundable deposit indicates a commitment to reside on campus for the duration of the upcoming academic year.
- Please refer to our website, housing.gmu.edu, for the most current information regarding Housing Selection. Information for the following academic year will be updated no later than November of the current year.
- Due to the overwhelming demand for on-campus accommodations Housing and Residence Life generally does not accept late or incomplete applications for the Housing Selection Process.

Room Adjustments

No adjustment in the charge for room rent will be made because of absence from the University for periods during the academic year. This includes, but is not limited to absences due to interruptions in service due to fire, the elements, or other casualty. In the event of mechanical difficulty (air conditioning, heat, hot water, and other equipment) or interruptions of data/cable/telephone availability, electrical power or water service, the University will make reasonable efforts to restore service. However, there shall be no abatement in residence hall charges because of such failure.

Vacancies

The University reserves the right to consolidate students with vacancies in their room/suite/apartment and/or change room assignments. This includes the right to fill vacancies or require you to move to a different assignment when the University deems it necessary. In such a circumstance your account will be credited or charged for any difference in room rate. If you remain in a room/suite/apartment that has a vacant bed space, Housing and Residence Life requires that the vacant space be available for occupancy at any time. This includes maintaining clean and accommodating common areas and ensuring your belongings are not impeding a student's ability to take occupancy. If you engage in behavior that infringes upon the rights or space usage of your roommate, suitemate, or apartment mate, you may face disciplinary action.

Agreement Appeal Process

You can submit a housing termination request in writing to the Housing Agreement Appeals Committee, which is comprised primarily of faculty and staff from outside Housing and Residence Life. Appeals will be considered ONLY after you have sought assistance from your Resident Director to resolve the problem, and all other, less extreme options have been exhausted — including transferring to a different room, room type, residence hall or apartment. To submit an appeal, you must submit the Housing Agreement Appeal Form (PDF), along with supporting documentation, to Housing and Residence Life. The supporting documentation depends on the reason(s) for your appeal. A completed appeal should be submitted well in advance of the date on which you would like to move out. Appeals received less than three weeks before the move-out date might not be complete by that time. If you've already left, your appeal will be accepted and reviewed only if it is received within 60 days of your move-out date.

Special Requests

Students who have specific housing requirements because of a documented disability should register with Disability Services to submit accommodation requests. Each request will be handled on a case-by-case basis and is reviewed by a special housing committee where staff from Disability Services consults with Student Health Services, Counseling and Psychological Services, and the Office of Housing and Residence Life. Disability Services will make a determination following a special housing committee review of student requests. Disability Services will contact students directly to communicate that determination. If a student's housing selection window opens up prior to their scheduled intake meeting with Disability Services, students are highly encouraged to accept the given contract and self-select a room. The student will be relocated if special housing accommodations are provided. More information is available at <http://ds.gmu.edu> or by contacting Disability Services (703-993-2474 | ods@gmu.edu).

Wellness

Bias Incident

Mason defines a Bias Incident as an act of discrimination, harassment, intimidation, violence, or criminal offense committed against any person, group, or property that appears to be intentional and motivated by prejudice or bias. Such acts are usually associated with negative feelings and beliefs with respect to others' race, ethnicity, national origin, religion, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, age, social class, political affiliation, disability, veteran status, club affiliation, or organization membership.

If you believe you or someone you know has been a target or have witnessed an act motivated by bias, please tell us what happened using the Bias Incident Report Form (<http://odime.gmu.edu/bias-incident-response-tool/>). Completing the Bias Incident Report form does not constitute filing a formal complaint of discrimination, hate crime or harassment. In some cases, however, the university may use information from an incident report to establish a formal charge.

Infringing Freedom of Expression

At Mason we include and embrace a multitude of people and ideas in everything we do and protect the freedom of all members of our community to seek truth and express their views. Freedom of expression in an intellectually and culturally diverse environment provides all members of our community the opportunity to learn, grow, and contribute to our shared mission to create a more just, free, and prosperous world. Mason is committed to protecting free speech and free expression on its campus and in its education programs. If you feel that your freedom of expression has been infringed, you may report an incident at <https://www2.gmu.edu/1stAmendment>

Immunization Policy

Vaccine-preventable diseases continue to occur on US campuses and pose a significant threat to the public health of the campus community. Outbreaks not only impose a significant cost to infected individuals in terms of mortality and morbidity, but can also be costly to the University and students by disrupting university activities and preventing students from being able to attend scheduled classes.

The goal of the University is to provide adequate protection to the campus community against vaccine-preventable diseases by requiring students to be vaccinated against and/or screened for certain highly contagious diseases. This goal can best be achieved through an immunization requirement.

All newly admitted students and re-admitted students must complete the Immunization Record Form and submit the form to the Immunization Office by the deadline listed at shs.gmu.edu. A late fee will be charged and a hold will be placed on the student's Patriot Web account if records or documentation are late or incomplete after the deadline. In order to live on campus, we require you to be in compliance with this policy prior to moving in. Students will not be permitted to stay in the residence hall without completing the Immunization Record Form.

Safety

Shared Responsibility

Campus safety and security at Mason is a shared responsibility. No campus or community is free from crime. The best protection against campus crime is an aware, informed, alert campus community of students, faculty and staff who use reason and caution along with a strong law-enforcement presence. Safety depends on each member of the campus community assuming the responsibility to protect themselves and others. Take a few moments to get yourself Mason Ready (<http://ready.gmu.edu/>) which highlights resources you need to prepare yourself for emergency situations that may arise on campus.

Be an Empowered Bystander

If you are concerned about someone's behavior trust your gut and tell somebody. More often than not, you are in a better position to identify behavior and activities that are out of the ordinary, concerning, or suspicious. On a college campus, some behaviors of concern go unreported and an incident occurs. Sometimes after the incident people come forward with bits of information which, in retrospect, may have signaled an issue. This information, when viewed collectively, may be helpful in preventing incidents and providing assistance to an individual. Therefore, as a member of the community, if you observe any behavior which is concerning, please provide detailed information specifically regarding what you observed (who, what, when, where, how, and why). For all emergencies, please call 911 or 703-993-2810 (GMUPD). To supply anonymous information regarding a crime or suspicious activity call Crime Solvers Tips at 703-993-4111. Any individual who is concerned about the behavior of a Mason student is encouraged to contact the Student Support and Advocacy Center (703.993.3686) and Counseling and Psychological Services (703.993.2380).

Building Access/Security

It is extremely important to prevent non-residents from following behind you when entering your building. If someone you do not recognize attempts to follow you in when you open a door to a residence hall, please do not automatically let the person in. You can help deter this by asking, “May I help you?” or “Do you live here?” If you live in a residence hall and are asked these questions, please do not be offended and know that you are being asked the questions as part of a community effort to keep the residential living areas safe. If you are behind someone who is entering a residence hall and you would like the convenience of following him/her into the building, we suggest you say hello and identify yourself by showing your student ID. If someone does follow you into a residence hall and you are concerned about their presence, please do not hesitate to call the GMUPD at 703-993-2810. Please describe what you specifically observed: who or what you heard, when you saw or heard it, what occurred, and why it is suspicious.
